

PET OWNERSHIP

DON'T BALLS IT UP!

JUNE 1 – AUG 31

What is Operation Wanted?

Operation Wanted is an RSPCA initiative supported by local councils and made possible by participating veterinary clinics.

Since its inception, almost 200,000 animals have been desexed throughout Queensland.

Pet ownership, don't balls it up. Get your pet desexed before August 31st for 20% off at participating vets.

DON'T BALLS

IT UP!

- Thousands of unwanted cats and dogs end up at shelters and pounds each year due to the fact that people are simply NOT getting their pets desexed
- A cat from 4 months old can have 3 litters a year!

The benefits of desexing

- ↑ Reduces the desire to roam
- ♥ Allows your pet to be happier and healthier
- ⊕ Reduces the risk of some cancers
- 🐾 Removes the risk of unwanted litters
- $ Cheaper council registration fees
- 💧 Reduces behaviours such as urine spraying in cats
- 🗑️ Reduces aggressive behaviours in dogs
